

St Mary Redcliffe

Anthony Pinel

Thursday 17 February 2022

1.00-1.50 pm

Anthony Pinel was born in Sutton Coldfield and graduated from Huddersfield. After a year as Organ Scholar of Birmingham Cathedral he was appointed Assistant Organist of Bristol Cathedral where he accompanied seven Choral Services each week in addition to making several recordings with the Cathedral Choir and undertaking tours of Germany and the USA. He also took part in many live broadcasts of Choral Evensong on Radio 3 and was conductor of Bristol Cathedral Chamber Choir. After a period as Acting Organist and Master of the Choristers of Bristol Cathedral, Anthony moved to St. Mary Redcliffe. Under his direction the choir produced two CD's, were involved in many broadcasts on local and national radio and television and made a trip to the USA in 2001. He was Assistant Director of City of Bristol Choir and taught the piano and organ at Clifton College and Colston's Collegiate School.

After 3 years at St. Peter's Church, Morristown, New Jersey, USA (during which he gave recitals at The Riverside Church, New York, Princeton University Chapel and St. Mary the Virgin, New York) Anthony Pinel returned to England as Organist and Master of the Choristers of Grimsby Parish Church, now Grimsby Minster, where he conducted the five choral services each week. He was Assistant Director of Music of Louth Choral Society and Grimsby Bach Choir. In September 2014 he took up the position of Director of Music at St. Chad's, Shrewsbury. He is also Organist at Wrekin College where he teaches the piano and organ. He holds the Associate diplomas of The Royal College of Music and The Royal College of Organists.
