

St Mary Redcliffe

Andrew Caskie

(Worcester)

Thursday 10 November 2022

1.00-1.50 pm

Andrew Caskie was born in Glasgow in 1979 and studied organ with Robert Lightband and David Sanger. He is managing director of Malvern-based Nicholson & Co. Ltd, one of the UK's oldest and foremost organ-building firms.

Outside work, Andrew is a keen cyclist; he is also regularly seen in the choir bass section and on the organ bench at Great Malvern Priory. He recently concluded a two-year term as chairman of the Worcestershire Organists' Association and is now a trustee of the Institute of British Organ Building. Prior to joining the Nicholson firm in 2016, Andrew was based in Scotland and was director of music at Palmerston Place Church in Edinburgh for over 12 years. He was also chairman of the Scottish Federation of Organists organ advisory team, and served as president of the Edinburgh Society of Organists.

Andrew holds an honours degree in mechanical engineering and is a chartered engineer. He and his wife Rebecca live in Worcester with their two musical sons.
